

Printed Pages : 2

Roll No.

Questions : 9

Sub. Code :

4	8	3	1
---	---	---	---

Exam. Code :

6	5	8
---	---	---

LL.B.-Ist Semester

1114

JURISPRUDENCE-I

Paper-I

Time Allowed : Three Hours]

[Maximum Marks : 80

- Note :-
- (i) Unit III is compulsory and carries 20 marks.
 - (ii) Attempt two questions each from Unit I and Unit II. Each question of Unit I and II carries 15 marks.
 - (iii) Begin every question/part thereof from a fresh page.

UNIT-I

1. Discuss the meaning, nature and scope of jurisprudence. How the study of jurisprudence is helpful to lawyers ? Explain
2. Critically examine the stages of legal development envisaged by Sir Henry Maine. Is this theory applicable in India in modern times ? Discuss
3. Referring to decided cases, discuss the reasons for revival of natural law in 20th century.
4. 'Law is the Command of the Sovereign'. Critically examine this statement by John Austin in the light of present day democratic set up.

UNIT-II

5. Even when legislation has acquired a prominent place among the modern sources of law, still custom continues to be relevant.

Identify the importance of custom as a source of law. When does custom become law ?

6. Discuss precedent as a source of law with the help of some landmark judgment of our Supreme Court.
7. What do you mean by 'Realist Movement'? Discuss its contribution to the development of law.
8. Comment on Roscoe Pound's theory of 'Social Engineering' and discuss its relevance in India.

UNIT-III

9. Write short notes on the following :
 - (i) Relationship between law and morals.
 - (ii) Grundnorm
 - (iii) Supreme and subordinate legislation
 - (iv) Ihering.